What the EnviroColor license holds for you.

Smart and simple, that's the way we do business here at EnviroColor. By teaming up with us you'll be unencumbered and fully supported as you grow your business. The EnviroColor Licensee program is designed to get you in business, not get in your way. Here is what the program holds for you:

- Complete training on handling and applying EnviroColor;
- Complete training on quoting and pitching your service;
- A protected territory;
- A selection of ready-to-print marketing materials;
- 10 gallons of each of our most popular colors - a $2,500 value!
- First access to new products;
- Rights to use the EnviroColor name, trademarked properties, photos and logos;
- Direct access to EnviroColor's professional team for on-going support when you need it;
- Discounts on EnviroColor products;
- Business listing on the EnviroColor.com website;
- Assistance in designing and sourcing the right equipment for your business.

The Fine Print

- Licensee pays a one-time $5,000.00 licensing fee;
- All licensees must complete EnviroColor training.

That's it! We aren't in the business of running your business. We're here when you need us and we will stand behind you every step of the way. Our eyes and ears are open. If you've got suggestions, special needs or ideas we'd love to hear from you.

For a limited time, we're making it even easier to partner with EnviroColor. Become a partner by November 30, 2015 and get started for $3,000! That's $2,000 off!
